Customer Validation Portal

Parking validation has never been simpler with our validation webportal.

Parking validation has never been simpler with our web portal.

Customers can effortlessly validate their parking by scanning a QR code located at validated areas, which directs them to a web portal.

There, they can input their license plate number, and voila, their parking is automatically validated. Customers are prompted to pay any remaining fees, or if none are due, they can simply exit the parking lot.

We cannot emphasize this enough .... With FrogValidate, parking validation has never been so easy.
